

CHAPTER XX: Flying Monkeys, as Criminal as the Narcissist

(How the Trojan Horse Enters)

The witch narcissist orders her flying monkeys to bring Dorothy to trick her with her lies, inventing that if she continues on the path she tells her she will find what she is looking for. She makes fun of her by handing her a diploma (she makes fun of her knowledge of her), a medal for bravery (she mocks her bravery), and a watch (she will waste her time). The wizard of oz was not a wizard but a person normal that tells them that the narcissistic witch deceived them and they only have get revenge on her. By accident Dorothy kills the witch¹

OBEDIENCE TO THE AUTHORITY

It's one day normal of the torturing orthopedic shoemaker who goes to his workshop like every Monday this one comes out more early than normal from home at 5am and goes to look for his lover to your house so that together they go to the motel early in the morning at 7am and after a while of spend a moment together they go to work and arrive at 11am. The wife of shoemaker, in addition to being his partner, she is the one who classifies the things that they come out of the warehouse so you must be punctually at work at 9am she as Every Monday she gets up after her husband has left, she does exercises, is going to leave Her daughters go to school and she goes to the company. When she arrives she gives herself the job and say hello from the person who sweeps up to the finance manager.

Is directed to the warehouse where she does his work in a meticulous and professional manner. Before Sit down, she pours herself a coffee that will last her all day since she doesn't get up.

She spent all the day in his chair until finishing all the assigned work.

Is an Exceptional and faithful worker. Items enter and leave the warehouse every 5 minutes Whereby the winery cannot be left alone. It's 11am and the shoemaker and his lover arrive, who works next to him at the desk. which is a side of his office.

He has invented a position similar to that of a secretary, although she has no education.

He explains to his lover who has put 12 buttons on her desk that she must press along of the day to keep the warehouse manager (his wife) awake and attentive not to commit mistakes, and explains that he should punish her and press a button different every time a claim arrives for the wrong product shipped or delivered until let it end the buttons, with each button a shock of 1000 Watts will be applied to your wife and tells him that There are 12 so that is the number of discharges and so as not to exaggerate with the pain, and after pressing them can do what you want it seems. That day then it's special because her shoemaker husband has installed a bracelet that should use his wife in the warehouse with which she tells him will improve her performance and avoid distractions. His obedient wife, without being very convinced of her, puts on the bracelet and begins to work.

At 11:30 she felt the first discharge, which was very painful and the reaction of this woman in charge of warehouse was shout and tell them that she feels pain through the window where they see her but not listen because it is sealed.

During the day the pain became more and more intense and concentrated in the soft parts of his body, which are They resented it more, and at 6pm she was exhausted, there were still 2 hours of work and she was already with a headache that wouldn't go away.

Initially his lover expressed to the shoemaker her desire not to continue, but he told her imperatively indicated: "continue, please," or "we need you to continue." doing this", or "it is absolutely essential that you continue", or "you have no "any option." In this way she imposed an artificial authority on the poor morals. I had this one.

The shoemaker He finished work and asked her lover if he was dropping her off because he was leaving. She said that she would leave later, when the shoemaker closed the door. She went straight to the button panel and looking at her victim she pressed each of them every 5 minutes.

The wife she begged her not to do it, but she continued even though no one had told her any order. Every time she pressed the button she laughed nervously. The lover before retiring at 8pm

She invited her co-workers so they could see the show and laugh at the ordeal that she had to suffer in the warehouse, then before leaving she put her in the cellar window a hand written paper that said:

POSTDATE:

I must say that in the position where the damn shoemaker's lover sat they passed my best friends and friends, my lawyer, my family, my sister and even my mother. Some were paid more for “working” after hours, others were made expensive gifts, and others were given bonuses and compensated with favors. I mean Maria Teresa A., Cote Merino Tapia, Maria Clara J., Karen Morales, Guetter J., Javi Povea del R., Diego del S. better known as the lawyer of the people, the ice cream thief, Nina Nuñez, Chris Hamburguesa, my mom.

Everyone they stayed after the hour and pressed the button when they were not asked to, taking me to the death rattle prior to coma. Only my father and a few others were saved, who still had the morals not to hurting others just because someone who claims to be an authority said so.

If you become a flying monkey you must be narcissistic. Flying monkeys often have strong narcissistic traits, including desire for attention, lack of empathy and the desire to intimidate and manipulate others. They may be involved in a family, job, or other situation where they know their best opportunity to satisfy your narcissistic desires comes from allying yourself with a narcissist more powerful.

Yeah you've had enough of being a flying monkey, it's unlikely that the narcissist in your life is happy about it and, at the very least, may not want anything to do with it. With you once you are no longer useful. Being used by a narcissist to taking care of some of the less desirable aspects of his affairs will always will place you in a compromised and stressful environment, and you should make sure you have with the right support when you choose to change your role.

Can a flying monkey End up becoming a narcissist?

The flying monkey is a narcissist and is recruited to join the army narcissistic because they recognize each other with this personal seal of cruelty.

The narcissist and the mirror

When the Monstruo Huacho looks in the mirror he sees no one, he sees a gun, and he sees a doll

wax. His physical identity can only be seen in the reflection of his victim-partner's eyes. His identity is trapped in trauma. His identity was altered child when he was physically, emotionally, sexually abused or praised to the point of heaven for his caretakers. His brain alters his identity and atrophies him.

Generating selective amnesia, altering your perception and that of others, and what necessary to avoid reliving the sensation of trauma. Without your identity brain will need notions of identity to function and each of these supplements they will be human, different from each other, because without this their weakness would collapse his Mental and emotional stability, leading to suicidal depression or schizophrenia. A person would know that he is intelligent, happy, and clever and so on; by itself without the need for that another recognizes it or knows it... Not the narcissist, he is only this if he manages to someone else believes it; and the way he creates it is through exposing the victim to speech and behavior designed to react the way he wants and thus reaffirm what he attributes to himself.

"If you I discard and it hurts you, I am valuable" "if I decide when it ends or begins something, I have power"

"Yes I manage your time, I have control" "if I cheat on you and you don't find out, it's because I'm very clever"

"If my silence affects you it is because my words are highly valued"; "if you are smart and love me, I "I'm smart"

(Applies to any attribute you want extract you). "If I cry and cause pain it is because I am a martyr."

"If I can make you feel guilty it is because I'm right" "if I manage to attract you it is because I am attractive"

"If I can make you hot it is because I am very sensual"... and just like that, the opposite if the answer is the opposite.

Why are they flying monkeys at the service of narcissism?

When the narcissist comes into your life, he has already created an army of monkeys flying, contrary to the tendency to think that these are added or they simply “turn” into flying monkeys at one point in their lives. He narcissist has a secret life before meeting before meeting his victim of him, and this secret life remains hidden by his army of monkeys that includes friends, family, and everyone who can help you so that you do not go out into the open. Light everything he has done and his personality.

Some of The reasons that drive these flying monkeys include:

The Self-preservation and protection. Leonardo's motivation to become her brother's flying monkey it was understandable and based on self-preservation. Like other people who do a narcissist's dirty work for them, she didn't pay much attention, if any, to the impact of her actions. Her need for Taking care of herself was far greater than her need to protect anyone. Another person. Form an alliance with the person perceived as the most strength of a family or organization is one of the reasons why people adopt this role. Telling stories, spreading misinformation and use gaslighting techniques against anyone who dares to question the narcissist could mean that you can keep your job and not be the recipient of narcissistic rage.

Rescue the "victim" narcissist. If you tend to fall into a rescuer role, you can feeling obligated to jump to the defense of the narcissist who blames everyone and everything for whatever goes wrong in life. Defending the narcissist satisfies your innate need to feel valued and needed because of your role as rescuer.

A loss of the sense of itself. Some flying monkeys are so intimidated by the narcissist that they have much less ability than one would expect when it comes to distinguishing between good and bad. They may have experienced years of abuse emotional at the hands of the narcissist and have lost their sense of self and independent decision making along the way.

Love the drama. Some flying monkeys they really thrive on drama. When you are involved with a narcissist, it's almost inevitable that you'll get involved in some drama along the way. Which can overcome the adrenaline of being trapped in lies, secrets and deceptions?

By Therefore, to some degree, flying monkeys are narcissists who recognize themselves among themselves. Their peers and share some of their traits.

According the DSM-V (Manual of Mental Illnesses) if a test were followed to find out if someone has Narcissistic Personality Disorder, you can know because it presents 5 or more of the following facts:

- ✓ 1. Has feelings of grandeur and arrogance (e.g. exaggerates his achievements and talents, he hopes to be recognized as superior without counting on the corresponding successes).
- ✓ 2. Is absorbed in fantasies of success, power, brilliance, beauty or love unlimited.
- ✓ 3. He believes that he is “special” and unique and that only they can understand him or only can relate to other special or high-ranking people (or institutions) status.
- ✓ 4. He has an excessive need for admiration.
- ✓ 5. Exhibits a feeling of privilege (i.e., expectations not reasonable grounds for especially favorable treatment or automatic compliance of your expectations).
- ✓ 6. Exploits interpersonal relationships (that is, takes advantage of others for their own purposes).
- ✓ 7. Lacks empathy: is not willing to recognize or identify with the feelings and needs of others.
- ✓ 8. You often envy others or believe that they are envious of him.
- ✓ 9. Exhibits arrogant, superior behavior or attitudes.

My flying monkeys

This is the incomplete list of my flying monkeys, which will be of interest to know the profile of the person the Narcissist (Monstruo Huacho) is looking for to validate the false version of your life through third parties (Gaslighting):

Tere A.
(Narcissistic
Property

Broker): accomplice to my kidnapping and rape. Addicted to casual sex in Tinder & Badoo apps. He always sleeps with her dates. Ex morbidly obese. Take advantage of to have everything for free, a freeloader par excellence because among her friends she chooses the dentist to fix her teeth at a very low cost, and in my case to have her and her daughters dyed their hair for 10% of the value and free vacations. She is the best friend of the Monstruo Huacho. Her case has a profile similar to that of Narcissistic mother who gave birth to a narcissist. She was morbid like the mother of the Monstruo Huacho, learned as a young man to manipulating people, having a repressed sexuality, there is evidence to point her out as a rapist of her own daughter, she is a narcissistic secretary of the Monstruo Huacho, her daughter is borderline (Borderline personality disorder) she instilled in her daughters that they are television models, throughout the year she lives on the back of the people that she knows and/or that she gets to know, this is how she distributes the year seeing who is going to usurp her property and food for how many months, and so it happens month after month all year round. For years when she left her husband with her daughters she was left with nothing since she had not contributed assets to the marriage, and her husband abandoned her for a pretty pregnant university student woman. She was left with nothing and left a relative where she lived with her parents in the countryside, returning to the misery she experienced in childhood, and dragging her daughters to the same. She began to use and be a specialist in manipulation at that time. Using the poverty that she lived and how unfair she had been the life she had been given. Live after a while the manipulation bore fruit for her and her "manipulated" friends of hers "paid for a gastric band, as evidence of the precariousness that she found she could have dedicated that money to covering family expenses and of her daughters, but she invested it on herself (since like all Narcissists they convince themselves that they "deserve it"). At that time her life was focused on spreading her experiences, her unhappiness, her precariousness, she exhausted herself with her story of poverty and suffering, all this in order to receive invitations from her friends and clothes, purses, lunches and goods, because she made you feel that you owed her something. He appeared twelve years later with an apartment and a purchased car. By the father of her daughters. She drinks alcohol daily. She smokes marijuana. She put the idea in the Monstruo Huacho's head that they would apply me electroshock which was a subject known to her since she applied it to her own daughter (it should be noted that this method has been prohibited for years). She intentionally forgets everything that people do for her, and just she remembers what people owe her. According to her, I was her best friend, and now I wonder what the rest of her will expect if I'm her best friend. Impressive to think that after a whole life of friendship and dedication, from one second to the next I take sides with a criminal and He forgot about her friend to such an extent that she does not talk about the whereabouts of my daughters, and If she is such a friend, one might wonder why her own daughter is the secretary of the Monstruo Huacho, when she does know that he is a pedophile rapist of my two daughters greater. She should have reported this crime or does she not know that the one who If you do not report a violation when you are fully aware, you commit a crime and will you pay for it?

Diego del solar (Narcissistic Lawyer of limited resources; flying monkey legal protector): being friends tried to sexually abuse me, also being a friend behind my back I file a lawsuit against myself to give custody of my daughters to their father. Biological only, for this he used false medical certificates and made that the Monstruo Huacho forcibly admitted me to a rehabilitation center, in this way I could not attend the court summons. Until today he is the friend of the Monstruo Huacho, he is addicted to tobacco he buys and sells, addicted to hard drugs, he is a lawyer scammer, Without going any further you can verify it by searching in the web for "reclamos Abogadodelpueblo.cl" and He sees all the scams documented on the internet, he is an alcoholic and has never He has money, he is a compulsive liar, a pedophile who gave his own daughter to a guy who finally turned out to be the same, invents, without shame or morality. He is accessory to the rape of his niece by his older brother. He comes from a family of pedophile lawyers for which they live their lives believing they are above the law. In another chapter he told how they took advantage of my assets without contribute nothing in any way for years, on the contrary they added and invited people to my house without paying them anything and without warning and all at my expense.

Nina (Account Executive, University Catholic of Chile): Drug addicted, liar, prostitute, slanderer. It's not worth talking so much about this woman because she has brain perforated and she has mental limitation due to drug use in excess along with alcohol, it is embarrassing to have been friends with this woman (although was at her insistence), a woman who He slept with half of the corporate banking executives of Banco de Chile so they could give him contacts so he could charge commissions and increase his salary and in order to be able to maintain his pimp husband Diego del Solar

Javi Povea (Kinesiology): Liar, immoral, she had a child by a married man son of the Monstruo Huacho, the dumbest of the monkeys. Low slave soul self-esteem. It is also not worth mentioning her at length since she has the brain pierced because she has little education and has a relationship with a doctor who she goes to see once a month for 30 minutes that she does not recognize her son and her life is based in that, companion of the Monstruo Huacho at the Universidad Mayor in Chile, in the kinesiology degree, she took and finished the 5 years, not like the idiot in the Monstruo Huacho who spent 5 years in college (to steal my monthly payment) that I paid) and was frozen in the 2nd year without finishing, then it was expelled.

HE MONSTRUO HUACHO DOES NOT HAVE ANY DOCUMENT TO PROVE THAT HE HAS A PROFESSION OR TRADE, OR DIPLOMAS OR TITLES OR CERTIFICATES OF HAVE COMPLETED ANY COURSE IN THE UNIVERSITY OR INSTITUTE.

NO HE IS AN ORTHOPEDICIST OR KINESIOLOGY AND HAS NO PROFESSION. HE'S JUST A SCAMMER ILLUSION SELLER SIMILAR TO THE TINDER SCAMMER FROM TV AND NETFLIX BUT WITH OVERWEIGHT AND ERECTILE DYSFUNCTION XD.

Lore Di (Witch and Tarot Cards reader): The dead woman is called a gambling addict, unfaithful. She had two cellphones. Further Known as the dead woman of the bank of Chile, who worked at the bank of Chile she knows her, also known for reading Tarot Cards to everyone, she asks a piece of clothing belonging to the victim to perform witchcraft against her, some clothing interior (boxers, pajamas, whatever the victim sleeps in). she has a telephone number with a private number for her of her misdeeds, in more than 15 years that I knew her she never said who her husband was, After 8pm no one entered her house, no one could call her, she had rules and mysteries for all normal things, so no one knows where she lives, nor Who is her husband, or if she has children, she does not have social networks, she only uses Whatsapp for her witchcraft. This diabolical woman was when, after 6 months, he Monstruo Huacho took my daughters, while I was living hell; she called me when I was desperate for help and in a conversation when I started to ask him questions like this: "Lore, Did everything that happened to me exist? Did my girls exist? They raped my girls? Or did I make it all up? I'm crazy? "And she responded "Yes Fran, everything you invested. -Then I asked- And those photos in the

Photo from 2019 where I am with my gold necklace that was stolen at a free fair by criminals hired by the Monstruo Huacho to give it to her. The theft was in November 2021

hallway, who are they from? AND those dogs that appear?" She responded "No Fran, you downloaded those photos of Internet". After this I plunged into darkness and fell into the flames. She disappeared afterwards. Then after leaving Chicureo, 9 months after not know about them, being with my current husband Jorge Acevedo, this woman She contacts me on Instagram telling me that she has something urgent to say and what She didn't know, it's that we answered her to unmask her because we knew her intentions to manipulate me and her strategy of extracting information from me to report to the Monstruo Huacho, taking all this into account, we called her and We left it out loud and on this occasion she also encountered the same narrative with which I confronted and unmasked Leonardo Molina, that is, pressing it until it exploded and would show what it was like with all its baseness. What is expected in this witch is she kept trying to manipulate me believing I was stupid, and she started telling me that she had seen the girls and said that she had information about the girls, but I did not fall into her game of lies because as my husband Jorge says, "I don't know. Negotiates with terrorists" and "Witches are fought." Finally my husband Jorge sent her an audio explaining the difference as if she were an idiot. Between her evil actions and the actions of a true friend that I do have and only I really know those friends. In a visit that he made to me as a flying monkey, in an act of God, we took a selfie and when comparing it today I saw that she has a necklace that she had had for more than 15 years old and they robbed me because of the Monstruo Huacho, he took me to a place known for where a criminal paid by him stole the gold necklace that I was wearing it that day, years later I see that this witch is wearing it thief Draw your conclusions. This dead witch acts like a lover of the Monstruo Huacho, that she needs to be like me, and have what's mine.

My Sister Maria Clara (Narcissistic and Narcissistic & suffer Emperor Syndrome, Account Executive, "Domestic" Thief, and Clothing Store Owner): I hid evidence of rape from her nieces (my 4 daughters). Identity fraud of the Police Department. Complicit in my kidnapping in Melipilla Chile.

She since little girl had the emperor or tyrant child syndrome: they begin by practicing dominating their parents, even in the most extreme cases to the point of mistreating them, and as an adult she became in Malignant Narcissist. They do not respect hierarchies, they do not allow themselves to be criticized, they do not They have a sense of limits, an exaggerated sense of what corresponds to them, low tolerance to discomfort, especially caused by frustration, low resources for solving problems, justifications for their behaviors blaming others, they discuss the rules and punishments with their parents whom considered unfair, pathological envy, bully and slanderous, it costs him adapt to demands like in school because they do not respond well to social structures or authority figures, denial of what they have been given request, and they express it with tantrums, attacks of anger, insults and/or violence. Are concentrated on themselves, they don't play, they are isolated, they don't have friends, and they don't they play. Lack of empathy, they ask to the extreme as a demand, it is difficult for them feel guilty, argue all the time, low self-esteem, demand attention,

When Girls, he started harassing me when I returned from school, we were walking towards the door of the house, and it was a long way, and I found myself involved in her harassing her while she incited me to fight, argue and fight since she I came full of hate, she was 5 years old and I was 8, and after a long time, she I ran out of patience with her, when I saw her I was shocked by the hatred I saw in her. her face, she was red with fury on her face and in her eyes, like a child bully, who does bullying, until he takes me out of my quiet world and takes me to her world of uncontrollability, and to make her calm down, I began to throw at her, She made a defiant face and said "make me cry", and I pulled her hair even more, She made me angry because I felt that I had to stop that situation, and even more she threw her hands at her. chunks of her, and she didn't cry, it got to a point where she started hitting herself, after this, without crying, she went to tell my mother so that they would challenge me, My mother hugged her and just then she started crying, until my mother made her cry. Comforted her, and got my mother to punish me unfairly, I never Nobody punished me because I behaved very well. That was her first warning of what would I do in the future? She got revenge on me for defying her when girl, and that same way of acting was the one she used when I discovered her husband when she hung out with prostitutes, and to get out of it she started fights with my sister, to get together with the escorts Rome and Came, and when I found out I tried to talk to them her husband and then when she couldn't talk to her husband, she got into the conversation, She said that she was going to put me in jail for defaming her husband. She went to avenge me for uncovering the breakdown of her marriage. Then she bullied me on messenger because I blocked her, she stole her assets but expensive, I stole what she earned at my job every day. Defamer of her friend Alexandra, when she away from her, saying that she was a prostitute, bad mother, with problems mental, ungrateful, of her friend's lawyer who had given her everything in life and that finally her friend had to stay alone with her daughters and that she had left him to go with other men to Brazil and that he had taken her She saves money for her husband to spend in Brazil on parties. A day said "With Diego we want to look for new sensations and it has nothing to do with marriage" and he agreed with the cousin of his friend from Brazil Rayane to swing with her husband, my sister and her husband Diego shared each other their partners with several marriages because they agreed that they should look for new sensations and that it was normal since all her friends do it. She slept with my ex-husband the Monstruo Huacho; He slept with all of his friends Rodrigo G., Jaime Q., Pablo M., and Claudio (Concepcion, Chile).

A Once I had to close my hair salon because a very important client came to me. She rented the exclusivity of my hair salon for a full day so I had to notify the people who had reserved an appointment, unfortunately among them There was my sister whom I attended for free, which is why she did not have her registered. When she arrived, my sister explained her situation to her, trying to make her understand. but she told me "take care of me anyway" but she explained again that my hairdresser was closed due to exclusivity, she said "I mean, it is more important for her "Because she pays you, is it money that you prefer instead of me?" I asked him again. Explain that with that day she paid my direct costs for that month and my sister did not she understood and exploded in anger and told me that "I have never helped her, I have never helped her." I wanted, that I preferred the rest of her" I entered into dialogue with her and reminded her when I got her a job three times in 3 banks, and after that, she took her son and her husband and she left until she showed up 10 years later when I was in trouble serious with the Monstruo Huacho and she arrived without warning, we don't know how She got the address, it arrived without explanations like nothing had happened, and She appears with a poker face, looking at me under her shoulder like a bug, and made negative comments from my daughter saying "that little girl is strange, she is strange and something happens". Then 5 years passed and she appeared when the Monstruo Huacho took my daughters, to make fun of me and steal things from my house. In another chapter we describe how she, through this hairdressing event, for years repressed her of her fury and planning with time and she was patient and when the time came she had no control of anger, of rage that she had towards me and there what we know as "anger" was unleashed of the narcissist."

Guether Jauregui (Computer science student): Prostitute addicted to sex, murderer (I know why I say it and be careful that when I want to denounce you), a liar since she gives an image of the perfect woman for Don't be suspicious of her actions, she hacked my phone and collaborated side by side with the Monstruo Huacho, drug addict addicted to hard and soft drugs she used ecstasy, cocaine, and marijuana daily, He stole money from my clients and kept the money from my work. Monstruo Huacho as a woman. She lived with my debit card. Hacker intervened me all my social networks and all my communications mSpy app installer on my cell phone without my permission, left my phone in parental mode where someone else had the control of it, forcing me to connect to a Wi-Fi network to intervene the communications using "man-in-the-middle" hacking to keep all my passwords (banking and social networks) and thus steal all my money, friends, contacts, and subscriptions. She had to be supported, she lived as a close friend with her boyfriend in my house without putting in a single peso, and I had to support them. I had to pay for gas; I used all the appliances in my house, trying leaving me bankrupt many times. He even accused me of CLP theft $200,000. - All my relatives called me, I grew drugs indoors in my house, having parties with 30 people who were her homosexual friends and destroying my home. She became best friends with my mother during my crisis to rule out the Monstruo Huacho, strange thing since she became friends with my mother in the last year and they both lied to me saying that they couldn't stand each other. In a call that my mother made to her I heard my mother ask her "is she (I) there?"

My Mom (Narcissist; -my sister's death needs to be clarified : how did your 4 children end up in a coma due to eat some fruit poisoned one that you were in charge of?; a message to you mum : think carefully about what sides you will be): She got me convinced that I am crazy. She is Pro-marriage & pro-manipulation, pro-narcissist. She insisted to me on being tortured again by the Monstruo Huacho, she said. That I had destroyed my family, she blamed me saying that I was responsible for the marriage failure. She became flying monkey #1 of the Monstruo Huacho. She was talking by cellphone calls with the rapist of granddaughters and abuser of his own daughter on a daily basis. In May 2022 I tapped her mobile phone, rescued her call history and discovered that on December 2, 2022 she began to talk to the Monstruo Huacho daily, they talked for 4 hours on a daily basis, when I confronted her and showed Monstruo Huacho's mobile phone number with her calls for two hours After his last call she said that "I had never talked to him" then she said I'm crazy, when I showed it that she had registered within the mobile the cellphone number of the Monstruo Huacho, then she blamed me for recording it, but she had it on all of her social networks. She denied everything even though she was caught in all cases. She thinks she is a nice Mother; she didn't care how I was doing or ask about my mental health. She was only interested to have the Monstruo Huacho informed without caring what was happening to my daughters or what that pedophile monster did to my daughters. She had in her phone contact list the Monstruo Huacho's old cell phone number and the new number of the Monstruo Huacho that she bought it after she left; since no one had it but she had it is her mobile. Never had she defended me as a mother nor did she denounce any crime of the Monstruo huacho. Although she was able to verify that in my house the Monstruo Huacho had played Wicca table and how he put a spell on me, she didn't care and she let the spiritual damage takes advantage. I was in the worst moment and she instead of guiding and orienting myself thru Christianity, she took me by the hand and took me to do Witchcraft where a witch with the excuse that she was going to help me against paranormal events. To the When I arrived at the place I realized that she was a witch who did black magic, full of Flies, she got into my truck. After this witchcraft, I asked him for help and she left me alone, just before they cut off my legs. She wanted me to die. She acted like all flying monkeys, so it is important to learn from this so that it doesn't happen to you. Well, everyone follows the narcissist, when the narcissist He says "let's drive Francisca crazy" all his monkeys follow him in his play. If he narcissist says "help me rape children" the flying monkeys help directly or indirectly and they become accomplices to crimes. If the narcissist asks for support to rape, a monkey is assigned to spread the victim's legs, another lends his car to kidnap him, another pulls down the victim's underwear, another enjoys watching, and meanwhile the narcissist carries out the rape. If the narcissist asks for support to sell drugs and become a trafficker, he appoints a monkey to buy teddies, another to uncooked them and put the bags with drugs inside, another lends his car to distribute it and another lends his checking account to receive payments. That's the dynamic between them. This is not about supporting to the narcissist with an alcoholic, drug addict, borderline, bad mother, well here the flying monkey became a criminal just like the narcissist. The flying monkey is no less dangerous than the narcissist because the narcissist will take out all the potential of criminal that exists within him bringing out the worst version of himself until to see the criminal inside him.

IF YOU WERE CHOSEN AS A MONKEY FLYING MEANS THAT SOMETHING DARK SAW THE NARCISIST INSIDE YOU AND YOU WILL END UP BEING PROSECUTED JUST LIKE THE NARCISIST. IN JAIL. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE YOU REALIZED BEING AN COMPLICIT MAKES YOU A CRIMINAL AND NOT REPORTING IS A CRIME

Let us not forget what God has to say about this in Proverbs 24:

No does not envy the wicked nor desire to be with them, because their heart only plots violence and their lips speak only of misdeeds. A wise man is better than a strong man and an educated man than a very vigorous one, because war He wins with strategy and victory, with the number of advisors. Wisdom is too high for the fool: at the gate of the city, he does not open the mouth. He who only thinks about doing evil is called a master of evil.

The Foolishness devises nothing but sin, and the insolent makes himself abominable to the men. If you falter on the day of adversity, how little strength you have!

Pound those who are dragged to death, save those who walk with faltering steps to the punishment. Do not lie in wait, evil one, at the abode of the righteous nor despoil his dwelling place of him, for the righteous, though he fall seven times, will rise, while the wicked sink into misfortune.

If your enemy falls, do not rejoice, and if he stumbles, do not rejoice. Rejoice, lest the Lord see it and take it amiss, and apart from him his indignation of him.

Don't you do not exasperate evildoers nor be envious of the wicked, because the wicked man has no future and his lamp will be extinguished. To him who says to a guilty: "You are innocent", the people curse him and the people execrate him. Nations; All things go well for those who condemn him and they will be blessed with happiness.

Chris Burger (Computer Engineer): Former girlfriend Catalina who is the daughter of Chilean ex-President Eduardo Frei. He had sex with 78 different women during the year, he found them on Tinder. Without empathy when I He went to watch my business to rob it, I saw him with a laptop all day sitting on my terrace, I asked him to help me with the Monstruo Huacho, since I knew that he was doing something bad, to which he replied that "the Monstruo Huacho He would never do anything bad to you, I am the one who supports all his computers and I never found anything strange about it". Another one who doesn't believe me and made me feeling terrible, I cut his hair for free, I advised him to buy clothes, I paid attention to him for months because of the breakup with his ex-girlfriend who left him On the other hand, months available 24x7 to help him by supporting him during his period in that he was sad and bad because they abandoned him, he hacked my phone, my laptops, the Wi-Fi network, my social networks intervened, my clients couldn't talk to me so I wouldn't have economic income and his goal was me to become depended on the Monstruo Huacho and he wanted to steal my business. He installed a call jammer that way when the dry man arrived that the Monstruo Huacho sent me, I couldn't ask for help. Addicted to prostitutes and a liar, well supports pedophilia, drug trafficking, scams, attempted murders and the kidnapping of my daughters.

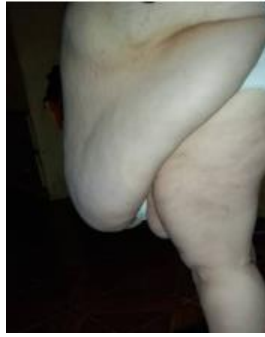

Mariajose Merino (Student of Foreign Trade; Monstruo Huacho paid him for the operation of apron wadding) : This rat lived in poverty his entire life, She sold empanadas in Algarrobo, Chile when she lived in a wooden house, she was girlfriend with an illiterate security guard who got her pregnant at the same time age of 17, she is the most vulgar person I have ever met in my life, at To start selling life insurance, she was able to trick an engineer who worked in Mining Company called Ambro, she told me "I met a black guy, handsome and smelly and I'm leaving him to bank anyway because the asshole earns good money" I was surprised at the drop in her and after a few months he managed to trick her husband and after 6 years of marriage she fell in love with the Monstruo Huacho, but she didn't realized that the idiot is a narcissist who cannot love anyone and that he does not generate money alone, because he is a pimp. With the Monstruo Huacho as I complied Between them, they stole the company that I founded in 2007, Tecmeseg (a company that I did to help to Monstruo Huacho to calm his depression after his first suicide attempt), leaving this company in her hands, Mariajose Merino Tapia, became involved in parallel to her marriage in an affair with the Monstruo Huacho, and in the appropriation of my company behind me. She participated in the kidnapping that they did to me when I was took to Melipilla, Chile for 6 months, she participated in the first suicide Huacho when he cut off his arm, blaming She was an accomplice, she also my two daughters. She was cruel and she found out about the rapes of my two daughters were raped by the pedophile lover of the Monstruo Huacho and is an accessory, she is the advisor of the action that he perform against me.

attempt of the Monstruo me for imprisoning me and participated in the rapes of made fun of me when she oldest daughters (all my 4 Monstruo Huacho), she is the accomplice of all his crimes as Monstruo Huacho for each

Lizca (Sister of the Monstruo Huacho, mistress of the house, kept), she is the Mater Narcissistic, since when the narcissistic Monstruo Huacho feels lost and doesn't know what to do, he turns to her, and she directs him like a puppet telling him what to do, whom to kill, whom to kidnap, whom to rape, whom to burn, whom to imprison, whom take away of the family, so she saves the narcissist as a spiritual advisor frees him from her sins because she knows which are sins and which are not according to her evil criteria, she acts as priestess and spiritual guide of the Monstruo Huacho, this is how we can get into the details of some of her main crimes: the crime of kidnapping Ana, where her father, narcissistic gay pedophile

Conrad Marfull, broke a woman's hips Municipal ballet dancer, relative of an important congressman, leaving her prostrate and applying alcoholic submission to steal her properties and money (Banco de Chile and Banco BCI banking accounts were appropriated) she finally disappeared when they moved her to a nursing home (supposedly), they disappeared her and They kept all her money like animals or hyenas, they sued me to stay like tutor for the care of my daughters, she reported me twice to the police and then in family court, accusing me of everything she is (unfaithful, liar) in addition she carries out spiritual abuse and her personality is She configures herself as a malignant religious narcissist, she has an inordinate sense of her of her own importance, she has a deep need for attention and excessive admiration, conflictive relationships and a lack of empathy for others, she has a set of distortions of the spiritual path related to each other, such as ego inflation (the aggrandizement of the ego fueled by the energies spiritual), self-absorption (excessive concern for one's own state and spiritual achievements), she judges the rest for any fault less than commit, in the case of seeing a woman putting on makeup she is treated as a "whore" and in the If a man separates from his wife, she calls him a "whore," "infidel," "whore." Like any narcissist, she hates children because they do not provide her with supply. For more detail of his actions refer to Chapter XVII called the Witch Nun.

Mom of the monster (Mother of the Monstruo Huacho; morbid from birth, inheriting her children the hell of fatness and butter like the Monstruo Huacho): This old woman is not worth talking about she well she is dead. She is garbage. For more details of her actions refer to one of the previous chapters.

Attorney Karen Morales (Lawyer): Impersonation of Detective from Police Department of Investigations (PDI) id. She has sexual relations with a head of the Colina PDI (Chacabuco province, Chile), said about the police officer "I slept with this guy and now "He did me the favor so now I'm kicking him and going with the Italian I met." She scammed me by filing a lawsuit that ended up being a request for a precautionary measure nothing more, this measure cost me USD $21,000 because they were going to be 22 lawsuits against the Monstruo Huacho criminal. This lawyer is complicit and cover-up of the Monstruo Huacho because she kept the drug evidence, evidence with semen and blood of my daughters, dismiss and bore my psychologist who was going to collaborate with the legal case against the Monstruo Huacho, this lawyer was bribed by the Monstruo Huacho, she abused me psychologically, she bullied me, she blocked me from her social networks when she asked him for an explanation about the legal cases that she was wearing, she was going to my hair salon to take advantage of this contractual relationship to use the colorist services in my business for free and I attended to her free. If you want to know in depth how this woman who was supposed to act She should had save my two youngest daughters from the pedophile Monstruo Huacho, read the book where is the story of the false lawsuit that she filed.

Friend Rodrigo G. (Narcissist without profession): accomplice of the Monstruo Huacho's addiction to prostitutes, married unfaithful, pimp, drug addict, swindler, Flying monkey #1, he cover and validate all the lies and false history of the Monstruo Huacho, merchant participated in the scam in the investment criminal case called Inverlink. His wife is 20 years younger than him and supports him, and the wife military officer is aware of her infidelity because she has low self-esteem due to his morbidity, provides data on hit man He had sex with the first couple of the Monstruo Huacho called Astrid, he had sex with my sister Maria Clara. They (he and Monstruo huacho) named themselves as "brother" or "mabri" with the Monstruo Huacho.

Friend Pablo M. (Married to Jessica I. without profession): pimp, he slept with his first partner of the Monstruo Huacho called Astrid, he slept with my sister Maria Clara, and he organized visits to brothels, addicted to porn and games.

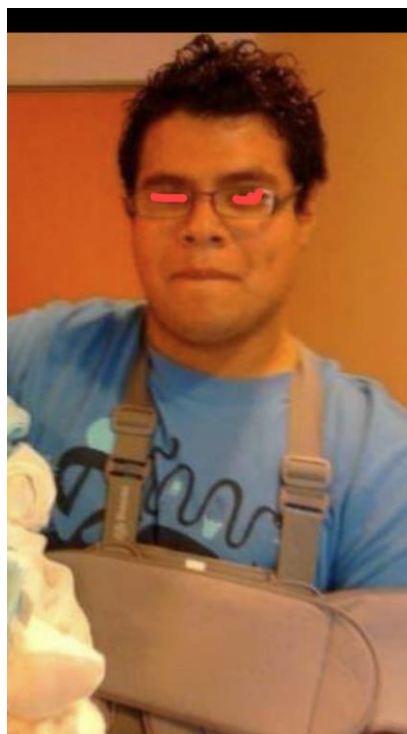

Friend Jessica I. (Married Narcissistic psychologist): false, alcoholic, liar, has delusions of grandeur, she would get information from me (especially legal) to deliver it to the Monstruo Huacho in exchange for going to alcoholic parties with the narcissist.

Friend Leonardo Molina Ruiz (Narcissist without profession): he grew up in a family that encouraged drug addiction, he comes from a very low social class, violent, poor, learned ideologies of hate, addicted to prostitutes and alcohol sex, liar, manipulator, violent, pedophile, drug supplier to addicted flying monkeys, criminal with caution, he was drugged with cocaine all day. He had a child with a woman addicted to pasta-base² without roof that practiced prostitution in exchange for a dose of paste- base. In September 2022, he made the phone call that I describe below in this chapter.

Nanny 1 Yuly, the Colombian's lady (Nanny, domestic employee, of African descent): she thought she was the lady of the house, and also the lady of the Monstruo Huacho and the mother of the Monstruo Huacho defended her, she had a relationship with the Monstruo Huacho that lasted a year. She coined phrases about the Monstruo Huacho like “In the supermarket told us that we were husband and wife” which made her feel proud.

Nanny 2 Evelyn (Narcissistic Nanny, domestic worker, originally from Peru with Afro-Amerindian features and mustaches): in love with Monstruo Huacho, she kept two cellphone lines to hide her of her infidelities, the Monstruo Huacho used to pay about the triple amount of her cell phone bill just for her to call to Peruvian people, the Monstruo Huacho paid him a driving course, he has bad-breath, his common story was “I meet a mysterious man on Sundays and he invites me to dinner” when she was actually referring to the Monstruo Huacho, she was the Huacho’s protégé. Monstruo Huacho the Monstruo Huacho gave him a cell phone, courses, vacation trip to Peru. When she returned from a vacation trip she stopped haughtily obeying me because she thought she was the mistress of the house. Liar, manipulative, false, many masks, she deified the Monstruo Huacho, she was She considered the best mother for the Monstruo Huacho. The Monstruo Huacho she invited a trip to see the eclipse of Higuera Chile and Bariloche Argentina of one month each in motorhome. Since she came from the jungle, she didn't know how to cook and no one ate what she cooked because it was disgusting.

Nanny Haitian (Nanny, domestic worker): I surprised her several times that at 12pm she slept with her feet on the sofa like a queen, she laid, the Monstruo Huacho her She was going to leave at her house every day. With it I could notice that the Monstruo Huacho has a fixation on foreigners, becoming attached to them as if in need of its validation.

Assistant 1: Romina (came from Venezuela without profession): it came in response to a newspaper advertisement as a hairdressing assistant and as the months passed I realized who knew each other with the Monstruo Huacho, arrived with her daughter and became another family member, robbed me and started depositing money to the Monstruo Huacho, the Monstruo Huacho rented him a department then was one of she was going to look for her and leave her house by car. It took an hour to drop her off at a location she was nearby (no more than 10min).

Assistant 2: Yinyel (came from the Dominican Republic without profession): according to the Monstruo Huacho, she was a nurse, she was a flying monkey who gave her all the information, she was a lover of the Monstruo Huacho, a liar, she spoke with the nanny, he ate all day, he thought he was an engineer, he tried to learn profession that took me years, became templates without any notice. I was going to pick up and drop off at her house by car. It took an hour to leave it in a whereabouts that were close (no more than 10 minutes). She talked on the phone all day with the Monstruo Huacho and gave him all the information. This is her; she makes www.footsolution.cl insoles for the Monstruo Huacho in her house. I imagine the quality they must have those templates today, they charge the poor clients USD$80 for the garbage what does this unprofessed indigenous woman make in her house? The half technology brought from Sweden implanted in Chile to scan footprints, quite a study engineering to determine with cutting-edge technology, with almost 20,000 patients throughout Chile and abroad, analyzing all the points through a report weak that the footprint of each athlete has to end up doing the shit an illiteracy. Suck it Monstruo Huacho XD.

Assistant 3: Carla Torrejon (Malignant Narcissist Kinesiologist, Univ.Mayor, partner of the Monstruo Huacho the year she studied): Flying monkey # 1, liar, tried to steal my business, stole directory of clients, he pretended to be me, he had delusions of grandeur, he said that “it would happen from kinesiologist to colorist in 3 months” something that took me 20 years to learn, I told people that “I am making a hair product with MY BRAND”, like assistant left jobs that were mediocrally executed and that meant losses for me large, he committed fraud because he charged my clients additionally and then with shame I had to give them back. The Monstruo Huacho invented that led her to training to Argentina one weekend while he went to see his mother with cancer, which was false because his mother had been dead for a while. Monstruo Huacho I hired her on Fridays for half a day, which meant she wasn't even able to make half a day. Staff of his business, there I learned that they were lovers of Friday. As Narcissistic, she made fraudulent agreements with businesses where they paid her directly from my clients. She tried to learn all my family businesses, she tried steal my business by usurping my name to take my business and doing advertising in Chicureo saying that she knew more and went to the home and that it cost half of what I charge for my work. All her attempts to steal from me without success ended up materializing in a lawsuit against me for 10 million pesos accusing me that I did not have a contract for her while I helped her because she earned USD$30 a month for your kinesiology sessions only in winter at the Clinic She only worked in winter because the rest of the year she didn't have work. The Monstruo Huacho allowed her to take his son so that she could become part of the family. She used my cars for her domestic use.

What makes a person feel compelled to act in a certain way? Way they don't want to or to help when they don't want to or listen to other people's problems?

It's called FLYING MONKEY MANIPULATION.

The typical example is when in the situation of a motorist goes to park her car, a poorly dressed person appears and ungainly giving instructions that no one has asked of her, and then when she goes to Leaving the place where she has parked her car, he stands in front of her. Car and forces him with non-verbal language to give him money in exchange for the mere presence of her.

If you don't want to help someone you shouldn't do it, you shouldn't support any manipulative behavior, even if it is minimal, because it feeds the ego of a person with narcissistic traits.

Trojan horse: when the enemy gets into your house.

Narcissists have a wide range of coping techniques handling. We already saw many of them. And if you want to learn to identify each of these perverse maneuvers, you must know them all to know how detect them and defend yourself against them. Today we will focus on a subtle technique but very dangerous: flying monkeys. You've probably already had contact with their flying monkeys and you haven't even noticed, since these can dress up as close friends, family members who apparently want the best for you or even neutral people who seem impartial. In this book we will explore each of these variants where you can have the enemy hidden in your own home.

Let us begin. First let's see where the term monkeys come from. Flying anyone who remembers seeing the Wizard of Oz when he was a child you will probably remember how horrible they were the flying monkeys of the Wicked Witch of the West. These monkeys they were sent by the witch to do her dirty work. And since then the phrase has become synonymous with people who end up doing the work Dirty of a narcissist. Are flying monkey's people who act in favor of the narcissist, whether we are aware of it or not? They are your servants. The bad thing is that many times they do not know that they are. They often get caught up in the plan of the narcissist carrying information from one place to another. But there are also flying monkeys who are direct accomplices of the narcissist. This could be because they admire him and want to help him, or because they want to hurt you and take advantage of the opportunity. Next I will show you the three types of monkeys flying ones that exist.

Flying monkey evident. This is that person close to the narcissist. It can be up to your best friend of his or someone in his family. That person will approach you to try get information out of you or plant some false information in an attempt to manipulate you These flying monkeys are very obvious, so they are the most easy to detect.

Naive flying monkey. They are people who have contact with the narcissist and they don't know they are being used. They may be part from the circle of friends, the work environment or the family. They are people who they have a common bond with you. That is why the narcissistic person will take advantage of this connection to her advantage and plant false information without her this person realizes this. You can tell him that you are sad, that you have a serious illness or anything else, something that is sufficiently important so that that person feels that they have to tell you or that you need know it. This person does not usually act evil; he simply gets tangled because of the narcissist's lies and manipulation. It should be noted that the person narcissist in question begins his smear campaign against you from the beginning of the relationship, generating doubts in your close circle about your behavior, giving them false information that they cannot contrast to make you look like someone unstable, toxic or toxic. That you are with every time more paranoia and that he is worried about the way you act. That you are an alcoholic or addicted to some drug, that you have some type of mental disorder such as bipolarity, borderline or other that are the most common. In this way it will generate a perfect breeding ground for those same people to later believe that it is a good person, who cares about you and who did not deserve to go through all that you supposedly did to him and that you are a bad mother, unfaithful, toxic, violent, liar, lazy or lazy and that you do not contribute to the home financially or that The narcissist simply keeps the house afloat. Thus, the flying monkey naive person will believe that he is doing you good. If he tries to fix things among you, you will want to give them a second chance, so you can speak well of that person, tell you that he is suffering and that he really cares wants, that you should be more patient and understanding, and even may tell you that you should give him another chance or that you should help him in this difficult time you are going through. Probably not meanly, but you must be very careful because that person can make you doubt. Even in a moment of weakness or relief, you can tell him/her intimate things that hurt you or make you feel bad, or provide you with any other type of information, which can be extracted by the narcissistic person, who will manipulate the flying monkey naive to tell him everything. Be very careful who you tell your things to personal. The best thing is to tell him not to tell you about that person and if he doesn't understand and continues doing it, you should keep him out of your life too. Don't mess with Trojan horse in your life. You don't have to have the enemy at home.

Hidden flying monkey is the most dangerous and treacherous of all. He is someone very close that you never see coming. Someone you trust and you don't even imagine that he can be on the narcissist's side. It may be a best friend or a family member whom you trust a lot and who has fallen into trap. The smear campaign we talked about earlier may have deep impact on people even very close to you. Narcissists use a portion of true information and then modify it, exaggerate it and convert it into something new to make you look bad. But that bit of truth that includes lying can make victims doubt their manipulation by identify that behavior in you, which generates credibility and they end up believing everything else. For example, you may be a somewhat jealous. Then the manipulator includes that part of truth in his stories and He exaggerates it and invents things that never happened, justifying those they did not they know how you get when they're alone, that you show a face that they don't. They know and you go crazy with jealousy and rage. This can be applied to many others. Traits of your personality. We all have flaws, but the manipulative person it enhances and magnifies them, which is unverifiable because it is excused that You do it in private and this can make even your closest circle doubt, since he appears to others as a kind, understanding, loving person and respectful, so it generates trust and even seems like an ideal person, which puts the responsibility on you. Of course the hidden flying monkey it can also be someone close. Someone who finds the reasons I was looking to release his hidden grudge against you. Maybe take advantage of ally with the narcissist and in this way cause very mental confusion. Dangerous. It could be a friend who secretly envies you, a family member who bear a grudge or jealousy towards you, it could be the person you least expect and that's what more dangerous. You must pay close attention to their true intentions, but mainly you have to set your limits very firmly.

Make it clear to whoever makes you doubt that you don't want to know nothing about that person that they don't talk to you about them, that you don't want to know anything more. If someone does not respect this point, remove them from your life too. Whoever the person, who loves you, respects your limits and your personal decisions? Take care of yourself a lot of who you trust. Final summary. The narcissistic person cares too much public image of him. This is why she built an impeccable image in your group of friends and family, so that later no one believes you when they say explain what you are going through. When your loved ones bring you false information from the narcissist, they actually do it because they think it wills they are helping, because they swallowed his lies, they bought his false image ideal and they became flying monkeys without wanting to or knowing it. In this case, you should talk to them seriously and explain what is happening. Yeah they don't do it maliciously; they will understand and respect you. Otherwise, you must stay away and have zero contact with them too, because they have already become extensions of the narcissist. Don't waste your energy on them. It is important keep them away because they can use very dangerous techniques on you such as gaslighting or encouraging the narcissist's ubering. In my case I in September 2022 after of almost 2 years studying this topic in depth, and being aware of what that had been happening since the Monstruo Huacho left, having knowledge of everything their actions, I began to recognize these patterns (of flying monkeys) in my friends, my family, clients, and employees. What they don't know (everyone we mention in this chapter) They thought I didn't notice their questions, their tones, and their intentions and in truth I let them advance with their narrative and see until where his limits of betrayal reached, he even lied to them in the answers and I always answered what they wanted to hear, I always saw them as people of mediocre intelligence and very basic reasoning, which is why I tried to this way, and they didn't realize that I managed them and not the reverse. For this reason, on the date that I designated as the deadline (September 2022) I called them all and each one in an orderly manner to communicate exactly the same thing to everyone: "The reason for my call is to tell you that I have decided to block you from me. cell phone, my emails and all forms of communication because you don't give me You contribute nothing positive in my life and at the same time I leave you the invitation open with open arms for when you decide to abandon your attitude and contribute in a positive way to resume contact, before NO. See you later. "(Cutting off communication, blocking him from my social networks and cell phone). The day Before I had made this radical decision it was because the last flying monkey Leonardo Molina Ruiz (see description above in this chapter) in September 2022, knowing that on December 1, 2021, the narcissistic Monstruo Huacho had taken my daughters, and this flying monkey, knowing what was happening to me, did not contact me for all the time the narcissist was torturing me making it impossible for me to see and be with my daughters, and what was my surprise when receiving this call as if nothing had happened during that year of his absence and making me understand with His story that I was in perfect condition was beyond all logic. Of I am immediately bombarded with questions like a police interrogation, as if he were reading a guideline, as if someone was dictating in his ear what he had to ask me or know about me. During his interrogation I interrupted him half because I got tired of his charade and started applying everything I learned about narcissists and their flying monkeys, for example, I confronted his absence of him, how false his questions were, how little of a man he had been, how bad friend of his actions, and how cruel and selfish he was by not empathizing and not doing no questions related to how I felt with all the avalanche of violence to which the Monstruo Huacho had subjected me, I proceeded to throw away his monkey masks telling him clearly that he was a puppet of the Monstruo Huacho, that he finished his performance worthy of an Oscar and that he will stop lying because I don't I believed nothing he said, after many attempts to continue insisting and Disrespect my intelligence, he realized that he no longer had his mask put on, and he showed his true criminal face and went from treating me like "lady" or "friend" to tell me that I was a "prostitute", "whore", "crazy" and other expletives because he was discovered. After this I cut off the call and I was left alone as a frustrated flying monkey.

This is the way to confront and take down the monkeys flying, for this you must educate you and learn everything about the sick mental disorders with disorders such as narcissism, psychopathies and all types of syndrome. Don't forget to educate yourself more about narcissism to continue learning and avoid getting manipulate

I attach reports from psychologists and psychiatrists that deny the narcissist's version of my mental health. This is the same case of all victims of a narcissist because we are victims of the campaign of defamation where the narcissist accuses us of: bipolarity, borderline, and alcoholism, drug addiction, infidelities various, bad mother, toxic, cellopathic, and psychopath. Such is the damage they do to you prestige that the only way to refute a malignant narcissist is with facts irrefutable and go down to their level of precarious education and culture.

PSICÓLOGA

ANTECEDENTES CONTEXTUALES

Con respecto a la historia familiar, en el año 1998 doña Francisca Jáuregui (20 años) conoce a don Cristian Marfull (27 años) por medio de una amiga en común. Luego inician una relación amorosa y al cabo de 3 meses, don Cristian se habría mudado a la casa de doña Francisca en la comuna de Ñuñoa, quien tenía 2 hijas de su anterior relación, Jazmín y Francisca. Al cabo de 3 años de relación, don Cristian habría convencido a doña Francisca de contraer matrimonio.

Según relatos de doña Francisca, desde los 3 meses de relación que se preocupó de solventar y apoyar económicamente a su pareja; le habría pagado una carrera universitaria (Kinesiología), le habría comprado un auto (ya que él le decía que se sentía avergonzado de no tener un vehículo para movilizarse a su universidad) y creó una sociedad con ganancias iguales llamada Tecmeseg, de la cual paciente refiere no haber recibido dinero.

En el año 2005, doña Francisca refiere haber descubierto que su marido no estaba cursando quinto año de universidad, como él le decía, sino más bien se encontraba en segundo, ya que no habría pagado las mensualidades que ella le entregaba para solventar la carrera. A propósito de esta situación, doña Francisca conversa con don Cristian sobre lo sucedido y éste habría dejado una carta informando que atentaría contra su vida, por lo que ella interpone una denuncia en Carabineros por presunta desgracia, ya que desconocía su paradero en ese momento. Al cabo de un rato, don Cristian habría llegado al domicilio y se habría desmayado, por lo que lo envían a la Clínica Ñuñoa, para luego ser internado durante 2 meses por un diagnóstico de Depresión Mayor.

Es loable mencionar, que paciente refiere que en reiteradas oportunidades habría sido manipulada por su marido, quien le decía frases como: "soy un inútil", "soy un tonto", con el objeto de que ella accediera a las peticiones de él y lo solventara económicamente.

En el año 2008, doña Francisca queda embarazada de [REDACTED] Marfull Jáuregui y 3 años más tarde, nace la segunda hija del matrimonio, [REDACTED] Marfull Jáuregui.

Durante el año 2009, según relato de doña Francisca, a raíz de una discusión sostenida con su marido, éste junto a su hermana la habrían trasladado a una clínica, con el objeto de ser atendida por un psiquiatra quien en una sesión la diagnostica con Trastorno de la Personalidad Bipolar y le receta medicamentos, que don Cristian manejaba y se los administraba 3 veces al día, por lo cual, ella desconocería la farmacología que ingería, sin embargo, refiere "me sentía dopada, funcionaba en piloto automático", "me daba como 10 pastillas al día".

Durante ese mismo año, refiere que don Cristian estaba a cargo de pagar los dividendos de la casa, hecho que no habría ocurrido y trajo como consecuencia el remate del inmueble por dicha deuda.

Cabe destacar, que desde el año 2010, paciente relata que habría sido presionada constantemente por su marido, el cual ejercía violencia psicológica con frases tales como: "tu mamá no te quiere”, “tus amigos no te quieren, estas sola”, “tus hijas te odian porque pasas trabajando, deberías quedarte en la casa para cuidar a tus hijas”, entre otras cosas.

En el año 2015, doña Francisca relata un episodio en el cual ella descubre una página de “escorts” en el computador que manipulaba don Cristian, al cual confronta y él reconoce, situación que provoca que doña Francisca le informe sus intenciones de abandonar el hogar. Esa noche se va a dormir y al otro día habría despertado en la clínica Los Andes en la que estuvo internada durante 1 mes, según relato de su marido ella habría intentado suicidarse, sin embargo, ella refiere no recordar ese suceso.

Es importante señalar, que entre el año 2015 al 2019, doña Francisca refiere “viví una pesadilla con muchas lagunas”, descubre que le habrían aplicado el método del electrochoque durante 3 meses en la clínica Ñuñoa sin su consentimiento, que su marido le habría sido infiel en múltiples oportunidades, que le habrían robado dinero de su cuenta bancaria, entre otras cosas.

Durante el año 2019, según relato de doña Francisca a raíz de una discusión por unos mensajes de escorts con don Cristian, él se lleva a sus hijas a Temuco sin su consentimiento y pasa 8 días sin saber de ellas, ya que su marido no atendía las llamadas. Situación que provoca una descompensación emocional, donde es llevada por una amiga a la clínica Alemana. Al enterarse don Cristian, acude al recinto para nuevamente decirle al médico que ella habría atentado contra su vida (hecho que doña Francisca niega), provocando que sea internada en la clínica Los Andes.

Cabe destacar, que paciente refiere que con fecha 01 de septiembre del 2020 se produce el quiebre definitivo del matrimonio, donde su cónyuge abandona el hogar.

Durante el año 2021, ocurre un episodio de violencia, en la cual doña Francisca relata que don Cristian la habría golpeado y acusado en Carabineros de haberlo agredido con un cuchillo, donde decretaron orden de alejamiento y tratamiento psicológico. Sin embargo, don Cristian le refiere que en el tribunal habrían decretado que ella debía ser internada en un centro, hecho que doña Francisca al tiempo después se entera que no era real, al ver el acta de audiencia.

Debido a lo anteriormente expuesto, es que don Cristian junto a su hermana trasladan a doña Francisca en contra de su voluntad, al centro de Rehabilitación Carácter Chile ubicado en la comuna de Melipilla, en la cual estuvo internada durante 6 meses y relata haber sufrido violencia física y psicológica por parte de las compañeras. Al regresar de Melipilla, refiere que retoma la convivencia con su marido, ya que él le decía que estaba bien y al otro día, don Cristian le dice que comience a trabajar en la peluquería, que necesitaban dinero.

En diciembre del 2021, doña Francisca refiere que don Cristian vuelve a desaparecer con las niñas, diciéndole por medio de un mensaje telefónico “esto es tu culpa, te dije que te iba a pasar esto si no acatabas mis órdenes” y luego la bloquea. Con el paso de los días, doña Francisca refiere que comienza a recibir videos de sus hijas de distintos números telefónicos, con mensajes “las niñas son felices, no te necesitan”, “matate mejor, porque nadie te necesita” “hazle un favor a tus hijas". Situación que habría provocado que doña Francisca cogiera unos medicamentos con la intención de suicidarse, por lo que durmió durante 4 días.

En mayo del 2022, doña Francisca sube a sus redes sociales un video solicitando ayuda, debido al desconocimiento del paradero de sus hijas y por no poder contactarse con ellas. Hecho que provoca que don Cristian se contacte con ella por medio de su hermana.

En junio del 2022, paciente relata que su marido la lleva al hotel Ibis y la mantiene retenida en contra de su voluntad durante 3 días, luego don Cristian desaparece hasta la actualidad.

Cabe destacar, que con fecha 04 de diciembre del 2021, doña Francisca interpone una denuncia por VIF, en mayo del 2022 se realiza la audiencia en la cual habrían decretado "maltrato habitual".

Es importante mencionar, que doña Francisca refiere que no ha podido contactarse con sus hijas y desconoce su paradero desde diciembre del 2021 hasta el día de hoy. Por temor a que algo les suceda a sus hijas no ha intentado buscarlas para traerlas de regreso.

Por último, al indagar estado emocional actual de la paciente, se pesquisa sintomatología ansiosa que aumenta al recordar y narrar aspectos asociados a las dinámicas violentas en las que estuvo expuesta.

RESULTADOS EVALUACIÓN

En relación a los resultados obtenidos por medio de entrevistas semiestructuradas y aplicación de instrumentos, se puede señalar lo siguiente:

En cuanto a aplicación de Inventario de depresión de Beck y Examen Mental, es posible referir que doña Francisca presenta sintomatología de larga data que incluyen sentimientos de fracaso, sensación de estar siendo castigada, sentimientos de culpa, anhedonia, alteración en el sueño, autocrítica excesiva, sensación de culpabilidad, dificultad para llorar, fatiga, cansancio y ansiedad somática (sensación de ahogo, dolores de cabeza, ritmo cardíaco acelerado, sudoración excesiva, malestar en el pecho, mareos, sensación de cosquilleo, sensación de extrañeza respecto a sí misma y estremecimientos).

En cuanto a aplicación de Escala de Gravedad de Síntomas del Trastorno por Estrés Postraumático, es posible inferir que doña Francisca presenta sintomatología asociada a Trastorno por Estrés Postraumático Crónico, vinculado a episodios de violencia de la que fue víctima por parte de su ex pareja y que incluyen: re experimentación de recuerdos desagradables y recurrentes del suceso basados en imágenes, pensamientos o percepciones que se presentan como si el hecho de violencia estuviera ocurriendo nuevamente, acompañados de malestar psicológico y fisiológico al exponerse a estímulos que le recuerdan el suceso de violencia, sumado a sueños desagradables y repetitivos sobre lo vivido; síntomas de evitación donde debe realizar un esfuerzo para ahuyentar pensamientos, sentimientos o conversaciones asociadas al suceso de violencia, así como también tiende a evitar lugares, situaciones o personas (ex pareja) que le evocan el recuerdo de lo sucedido, experimentación de distanciamiento respecto a los demás, observa una disminución marcada del interés por cosas y actividades significativas para ella y con respecto a su futuro, siente que lo sucedido le ha afectado negativamente. Por último, se presenta un aumento de la activación que incluye dificultad para conciliar y mantener el sueño, dificultades de concentración, se encuentra excesivamente alerta y se sobresalta más fácilmente desde el suceso de violencia vivido.

CONCLUSIONES

De acuerdo a los resultados obtenidos, es posible referir que doña Francisca Jáuregui presenta indicadores sintomatológicos asociables a un Trastorno Depresivo Moderado de larga data, a raíz del daño emocional crónico asociado a haber estado expuesta a episodios de violencia intrafamiliar históricamente durante su matrimonio.

Además, doña Francisca presenta indicadores sintomatológicos ansiosos de larga data asociables a Trastorno de Estrés Postraumático Crónico Grave, como consecuencia del daño emocional vinculado a la violencia intrafamiliar, que se configuraría como un suceso traumático.

SUGERENCIAS

En virtud de la evaluación realizada se sugiere:

- Que doña Francisca Jáuregui se mantenga en terapia psicológica, con el fin de reparar el daño emocional asociado a la violencia intrafamiliar de la que fue víctima y con el objeto de incorporar herramientas psicológicas para disminuir la ansiedad y resignificar el estrés postraumático.

5.4 DESCRIPCION TEORICA

8A PASIVO AGRESIVO Relacionándose con los demás de una manera obsequiosa y autosacrificada, estas personas permiten, y quizás fomentan, que los demás les exploten o se aprovechen de ellos. Centrándonos en sus aspectos más lamentables, muchos afirman que merecen ser avergonzados y humillados. Para integrar su dolor y angustia, estados que ellos experimentan como reconfortantes, recuerdan activa y repetidamente sus percances pasados y transforman otras circunstancias afortunadas en resultados potencialmente más problemáticos. Actúan de una manera modesta e intentan pasar desapercibidos, frecuentemente intensifican su déficit y se sitúan en un plano inferior o posición despreciable.

3. DEPENDIENTE Estos individuos pugnan entre seguir los refuerzos ofrecidos por los demás y los deseados por sí mismos. Esta pugna representa una incapacidad para resolver conflictos parecidos a los del pasivo-ambivalente (compulsivo); sin embargo, los conflictos de las personalidades activas ambivalentes permanecen cerca de la conciencia e invaden la vida cotidiana. Estos pacientes se meten en discusiones y riñas interminables ya que vacilan entre la deferencia y la obediencia, y el desafío y negativismo agresivo. Su comportamiento muestra un patrón errático de terquedad o enfado explosivo entremezclado con periodos de culpabilidad y vergüenza.

8B AUTODERROTISTA Estos individuos han aprendido no solamente a volverse hacia otros como fuente de protección y seguridad, sino que también esperan pasivamente que su liderazgo les proteja. Se caracterizan por una búsqueda de relaciones en la que se puedan apoyar en otros para conseguir afecto, seguridad y consejo. La carencia en esta personalidad tanto de iniciativa como de autonomía es frecuentemente una consecuencia de la sobreprotección parental. Como consecuencia de estas experiencias, han aprendido la comodidad de adoptar un papel pasivo en las relaciones interpersonales, tras conocer qué atenciones y apoyos pueden encontrar y sometiéndose de buena gana a los deseos de otros a fin de mantener su afecto.

VI. INTERPRETACION DE LOS RESULTADOS

Según las escalas de distorsión V X,Y Z

La escala V señala que sus respuestas son validas

La escala X señala que sus respuestas son sinceras

La escala Y señala que no trata de presentarse de manera favorable

La escala Z señala que no trata de desvalorizarse

Francisca se relaciona con sus familiares indirectos de manera obsequiosa y auto sacrificada, ella permite, y quizás fomentan, que su madre la explote o se aprovechen de ella. También pugna entre seguir los refuerzos ofrecidos por los demás y los deseados por sí misma. Se vuelve hacia otros como fuente de protección y seguridad, y también espera pasivamente que el liderazgo de terceros le proteja.

VI. CONCLUSIONES Y SUGERENCIAS

- Por todo lo expuesto, según los resultados se puede afirmar que Francisca no presenta trastornos de personalidad o trastornos psiquiátricos o síndrome bipolar o síndrome borderline ni síndromes ni patologías graves de la personalidad. No presenta dependencia al alcohol ni a drogas.

-Francisca de acuerdo con el resultado en el test presenta un perfil de personalidad clínica.

 Psiquiatra [REDACTED]

Below we attach so that you can read the difference with facts the actions of a patient with various mental disorders, here the Monstruo Huacho reveals his immaturity, impulse control, zero tolerance for frustration and immaturity to face problems. Instead, anger and anger cancel out the innate alerts that the body has, such as alerts to dangers. Mentally ill people generally ignore warnings, and they are capable of cutting themselves without feeling pain or fear, which are traits of a being narcissistic. THIS IS NOT DEFAMATION THIS IS A TANGIBLE FACT where a psychiatrist The Providence clinic diagnosed him as mentally ill. IT IS A FACT, not words of defamation that narcissists usually spread.

Los hechos relatados no configuran delito.

POR TANTO,

RUEGO A US. De conformidad con lo dispuesto en el artículo 168 del Código Procesal Penal, se sirva aprobar la presente decisión de no iniciar la investigación.

In conclusion I would like my dear flying monkeys start slandering your narcissistic clown with this real information, which I imagine they should be embarrassed - because it would happen to me - when they see these documents where nothing they said was true. I repeat, nothing what they said and commented was true. I think these flying monkeys are the dumbest that must exist in the history of narcissism since the Psychiatrist Otto Kernberg first spoke about narcissism in 1968. The Monstruo Huacho along with these Flying Monkeys are the shame of the group of criminals on the planet, as an idea I suggest starting a circus called Monstruo Huacho, where the flying monkeys are the clowns and puddle dogs with skirts that will make people laugh...even in this they are going to go badly, because with A perforated brain does not give rise to ideas of any kind. This group of idiots believe they are always right, they react to conflict with anger, ignore others, believe they are better than others, and their culture is to defame the other - as in towns - women copy things to pretend to belong to another social class (it was clear to them what the circle is of the narcissist?).
